What's Happening

By Becky Moore

Mr. Martin Webb, Red Harvey, Bob Hubbard and John Pittman made up a foursome and hit the "little white ball" out of town last week. They journeyed to Whitegreen, Va. They had a good day, but they played so late the restaurants were closed. They were hungry and tired. Better "skip" the 36 hole, next time fellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. (Buddy) Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gant of Farmville, are leaving this week end to attend the graduation of their sons, Kit Carson and Jimmy Gant. The young men are graduating from The Coast Guard Training Center, Cape May, N.J.

Mrs. Bill Jamerson spent this past week end in Blacksburg, Va. where she attended the homecoming football game at the VPI & SU where her son, Phillip, is a student.

Could not talk with many people this week, so decided to go see "What was Happening".

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Jones of Pamplin were seen choosing Halloween treats with their children, Michelle and J. in the Appomattox Shopping Center.

Susan Smith and Jennifer Johnson were seen out riding "Candy and Rebel", both young ladies like to horseback ride along with their other many school interests.

Phil Coleman, Appomattox, Va. and Clifton Carson of Woodstock were "just taking it easy." Both young men are graduates of Va. Tech. They were in Appomattox visiting some classmates. Clifton was visiting his mother, Mrs. Katherine Carson.

"I'm next", Donnie Simpson tells her sister, Chery, as she stands with her mother, Mrs. Wanda Simpson, who went with her children for a walk on a beautiful afternoon.

Thomas I. Harden plays catch with "Smokey" Sunday afternoon. Thomas pays softball for Liberty Baptist Church, a member of 1977-78 Baptist Church Softball Championship Team. The last game was played September 28 against New Hope - Score 10 - Liberty Baptist Church - 18. Thomas is a sophomore at ACHS

ACHS Marching Band Competes In Halftime Competition

On Saturday morning, September 30, the ACHS marching band and auxiliary units traveled to the University of Richmond for their annual "Band Day" and halftime competition. There were over 25 bands from all over the state competing in two different divisions. At halftime, all the bands performed on the field playing, Walt Disney's, "It's A Small World," and "Song of the High Seas," from "Victory at Sea," by Richard Rodgers. It was a very rewarding experience for all those who went.
